All information here is noted on the web site at www.basl.com including registration fee as well as dates of the current season. Please go there for details. Registration fee must be made payable to your team captain. Your team captain will need to turn in the funds one week prior to the final registration deadline. Along with the fee, you will need this completed form as well as a color photograph in digital format (any format, but preferably jpeg 150 resolution 1.5 inches tall) clearly depicting your face. The BASL will accept one check per team from the team captain at the regular registration deadline. After this time, late registration will continue through the final registration deadline. Late registration is to be made to the BASL. After the final registration, players may register pro-rata through the 3rd week at which time a set fee will be in place through the 6th game after which no roster changes will be accepted. Numbered matching jerseys, shorts, socks, and shin guards REQUIRED for every player on each team though not provided by the league (ask your captain).

Additional inquiries: Please contact the registrar, David Parker, by leaving a message at (904) 992-1742 or email davidp@basl.com and you will be contacted within 24 hours.
